S.45187

Massachusetts.

Testimony in the case Aaron Allis an applicant to be placed on the Pension List, under the act of Congress of the 18 March 1818.

State of New York

Rensselaer County SS.

Aaron Allis a resident of the City of Troy, in the County of Rensselaer and State of New York being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that he served in the Revolutionary Army of the United States. That in the month of April 1777, he enlisted as a private in a company commanded by William Watson, Col. Weston in the ninth regiment of the Massachusetts line, which regiment was commanded by Col. _____ Weston (1). That this deponent served in the said company and regiment, for the term of three years, (being the term of his enlistment.) and that he was honorably discharged at West Point in the State of New York, on the ninth day of April 1780. And this deponent further says that he again enlisted in the service of the United States in the month of March 1781, in a company Capt--Wade, in the Massachusetts line, in the Third Regiment commanded by Col. Michael Jackson, (2) in which last mentioned company and regiment this deponent served nearly three years, part of the time as a Sergeant, and was honorably discharged, at West Point in the State of New York, on the 23d December 1783. That the evidence of the last mentioned discharge, signed by Major Gen. Knox, (3) at that time commanding the American Forces on the Hudson's River, is now in the possession of this deponent. And this deponent further says that "by reason of his reduced circumstances in life, he is in need of assistance from his country for support." (Signed) Aaron Allis (4)

End Notes—S.45187—Aaron Allis

1. Colonel James Wesson of the Ninth Massachusetts Continental Regiment. He retired from the service on January 1, 1781. Captain William Watson had been appointed First Lieutenant on January 1, 1777 and then to Captain on July 25, 1779.
2. Michael Jackson was Colonel of the Eighth Massachusetts Continental Regiment. He transferred to the Third Massachusetts Continental Regiment on June 12, 1783. The Colonel of the Third Massachusetts was John Greaton from November 1, 1776 to January 7, 1783 when he was appointed Brigadier General.
3. Major General Henry Knox.
4. It is interesting that Aaron does not mention any of the battles that Ninth Massachusetts was engaged in. They fought in the Battles of Saratoga on September 19 and October 7, 1777. They were also in the Battle of Monmouth, N.J. on June 28, 1778 where Colonel Wesson was wounded.
