

Pension Application for George Boyles

S.45353

State of New York

Broom County SS.

On this twentieth day of May 1818, before me the subscriber, one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in & for said County, personally appeared, George Boyles, aged fifty eight years, resident in the town of Windsor in said County, who being by me first duly sworn, according to law, doth, on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the provision made by the late act of Congress entitled "An act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land & naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War"—

That he the said George Boyles, enlisted as a private soldier, in the army of the United States, in the county of Ulster in [the] state of New York, in the spring of the year 1777 for the term of three years, in the company commanded by Capt. Sanford in Col. Malcolm's Regiment of Continental troops—that he continued in the service of the United States until the expiration of the said term of three years, when he was discharged from service near Morristown in the state of New Jersey—

That he was in the battle at Hogback hill on the Tioga or Chemung River in the state of New York under General Sullivan in 1779--& in several skirmishes—that he is in reduced circumstances, and stands in need of the assistance of his country for support—that his discharge was accidentally burnt about eight years ago & that he has no other evidence now in his power of his said services.

Sworn to & subscribed before me the day and year aforesaid. Wm. Stuart
