Halt president; James McPherson, Robert Smith, and Levi Garwood his associates Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of the county aforesaid, now sitting, William Carrel, a resident of Monroe township in the County of Logan and State of Ohio, aged sixty six years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on his oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7, 1832—

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated. He was drafted on the first day of March A.D. 1781 at the town of Johnstown in the county of Montgomery and State of New York, and he immediately entered the service in the militia, under Captain William Wallace, Lieutenant Solomon Woodard, Col. Willet of the regular army commanded the regiment to which Capt. Wallace's company was attached.

He left the service on the second day of December A.D. 1781. He received from Col. Willet a written discharge which he kept for nine or ten years after the war and then lost it. He resided at the said town of Johnstown in the State of New York when he entered the service. He was born at said town of Johnstown and resided there till he went into the service as aforesaid. He was first marched to Fort Plain, below Little Falls on the Mohawk River, where he was stationed for six months to guard the frontiers—then he went to a place called Cacknewago [Caughnawaga] 25 miles above Schenectada on the Mohawk River, where he was stationed for two months—thence he went to Johnstown and was stationed there until he was discharged as aforesaid.

He was in a battle fought about one mile from Johnstown in a field called Sir Wm Johnston's [Johnson] field—Col Willet commanded the Americans. Major Ross and Capt. Butler were officers in command in the British army, which was composed of Indians and British – but Butler was killed—The enemy retreated towards Lake Ontario. He was in a battle on Canada Creek about 40 miles from Johnstown, when the Americans drove the Indians and British and killed several of them. They were commanded by the same officers on both sides in each battle—

He was not with any other regiment of regular troops except Co. Willet's and he does not recollect any other of the field officers except Col. Willet. He was engaged during his whole term of service on the frontiers.

He has no documentary evidence, and he knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his service—

He was born in the year 1766 at the place above mentioned—

He has no record of his age—He had a record of his age when he lived at the rapids of the Maumee river, but he lost this with everything else of property he had at the time of Hull's surrender—

He left Johnstown in the year 1788 and removed to Canada—staid there about six years then moved to Detroit—and moved from there to the Maumee rapids in 1802, and removed from there to where he now lives in said county of Logan in the year 1812 where has lived ever since—

He is known to the following persons in his present neighbourhood who can testify as to his character for veracity and their belief of his services as a soldier of the revolution. Daniel M. Workman, George McCullach, George Moots and John D. Corwin.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state. (Signed with his mark) William Carrel
