Philip VanCortlandt in the same line and that I left the service on the expiration of the term afores'd being honorably discharged and that by reason of my reduced circumstances in life and poverty, I stand in need of assistance from my country for support, being now of the age of sixty five years. My discharge, being lost thru' lapse of time I have not any other evidence to us than is herewith exhibited it not being in my power to go to New York or to procure evidence in Massachusetts.

And I hereby relinquish all claim to every pension heretofore allowed me by the laws of the United States, if any may be or hath been so allowed. (Signed) John Dobson
