Letter in folder dated March 28, 1933, written in response to an inquiry.

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War records of Joshua and Samuel Drake who served in the Orange County, New York militia.

There is no claim for pension on file based upon service in the Revolutionary War of either of the above named persons, and no claim for bounty land based upon that service of a Samuel Drake.

The records of this office show that one Joshua Drake served as lieutenant in Colonel Malcolm's regiment, War of the Revolution, and became a supernumerary on April 23, 1779. No details of his service are stated.

John Drake married November 27, 1786; place of marriage name of wife and date of her death not shown. He died June 1, 1790.

Joshua Drake was survived by one child only, Sally Ann who was born January 14, 1790.

Soldier's daughter, Sally Ann, married June 14, 1807, William Faulkner of Salem, Washington County, New York.

On March 14, 1812, William Faulkner and Sally Ann his wife, both then of Salem, New York, made application for bounty land which was due said Sally Ann as the daughter and only heir of Joshua Drake for his service as lieutenant in the Revolutionary War.

Warrant No. 579, for 200 acres of bounty land, was issued March 28, 1812, to Sally Ann Faulkner, only heir-at-law of Joshua Drake.

The Revolutionary War records show also, that Warrant No. 553, for 200 acres of bounty land, was issued September 8, 1790, on account of the service of the above-named Lieutenant Joshua Drake. That warrant was issued to Samuel Drake, assignee, no relationship to Joshua recorded.
