That he enlisted in the United States services under the following named officers, and served as herein Stated. That in the month of July on or about the first of the month in a company commanded by Capt. John Blauvelt (1), Rumsey & Cure (2) officers in said company, in a Regiment commanded by Col. Drake (3) in Genl Scotts (4) Brigade, Nicholas Fish (5) was Brigade Major, and went to New York then to Long Island and was near Genl Starling (6) when he was taken prisoner by the British Army, then retreated with Genl. Washington's (7) army to New York—then to Kings Bridge, then to White Plains, then to Peekskill where he was discharged, then in the spring of the year 1777, he volunteered for three months in a company commanded by Capt. Gardner (8) for three months, and served that time a guarding along the Hudson river from Nyack to Haverstraw, then after that time was expired I entered the service in a Company commanded by Capt. Jacob Onderdonk (9) (both of said capt was in a regiment commanded by Coll A. Hawkes Hay) and served therein until the Spring of the year 1782 and served that time in guarding along the west shore of the Hudson River as aforesaid and in scouting through different parts of the now County of Rockland and the County of Bergen, in the state of New Jersey, which services was performed as follows. Onderdonk as aforesaid until the close of war, that he has no documentary evidence of any of his services as he does not recollect that he ever received a written discharge that from his infancy he has always resided in the town of Clarkstown aforesaid, that all but his service under Capt. Bowen he is unable to prove by some of his fellow soldiers in the war that he is well known to Judge Peter D. W. Smith, Piter Stephens, Capt. Per Curiam, David Pye Clerk

[A "per curiam" decision is a decision delivered via an opinion issued in the name of the Court rather than specific justices. Most decisions on the merits by the Supreme Court (and other appellate courts in the U.S.) take the form of one or more opinions signed by individual justices (and joined in by others). Even when such signed opinions are unanimous, they are not termed "per curiam." "Per curiam" decisions are given that label by the Court itself and tend to be short. Usually, though not always, they deal with issues the Court views as relatively non-controversial.]

Personally appeared before the Subscriber, a Justice of the Peace in and for said Abraham Garrison of said County aged 76 years and being duly sworn saith as follows Viz:

I am the same Abraham Garrison who on the 30 day of November 1832 made a declaration before the Court of Common Pleas [Pleas] to obtain a pension under the Law of Congress June 7th 1832 which declaration has been returned as defective in its specification, and also in the part of the interrogatories. That he was questioned in open court on the 31st day of November 1832 and answered by him, that he was born in the precinct of Haverstraw County of Orange (Now Clarkstown, County of Rockland) in N. York 1757. That he entered the service of the United States under Capt. John Blauvelt in June 1776 and not in the month of July as by him before stated for five months. That he entered the company of said Blauvelt at the Court House in Clarkstown from the company of Capt Jacob Onderdonk while "on parade". That some five days afterwards Captain Blauvelts company rendezvous at Clarkstown chose some inferior officers and made an arrangement for embarking for New York that some days apart that he with the company to which he belonged embarked on bord [sic, board] of a vessel belonging to Capt Augz [Arie, Owen?] Smith at Nyack and arrived in the City of New York. That they were in the City of New York some time Previous to the declaration of American Independence, but how long he cannot recollect.

That on the fourth day of July 1776 he assisted in taking down or destroying the British representation of George the 3d erected and represented as on horseback in an enclosure called the Bowling Green in the City of New York. That he served the five months as a private and he remaining mostly [?] four months Sergeant. That he was regularly sworn and duly authorized to act as such & performed duty accordingly. The regiment was commanded by Col. Drake, Genl Scotts mostly Brigade, we crossed to Long Island and there was stationed for some time. At the landing of the British on Long Island and at the battle fought between the Americans & British the Americans were forced to retreat and the deponent with his company also retreated in the night across the East River to the City of N. York and from thence to Kings Bridge near fort Washington, where some time was spent in building barracks. From thence they retreated to White Plains, where some intrenchments were thrown up for defence. Here the battle of White Plains (11) was fought after it was over Genl Washington with the main army retreated to Kings Ferry and there crossed and the regiment to which the company in which deponent was Commanded by Colonel Drake. Marched to Peek's Kill where they remained come time, they were then marched to Kings Ferry crossed the river to Haverstraw at which place the term of enlistment expired, he was honorably discharged.

He was honorably discharged. When in the spring of the year 1777, he volunteered in a company commanded by Captain Gardner for three months & served that time doing guard duty along the shores of Hudson river between Haverstraw and Snedins ferry near the Jersey line. Having performed the duty for which he entered he was discharged, but the remainder of the Company remained in actual service. That the said deponent relinquishes the service rendered under Captain Jacob Onderdonk except that part hereafter stated. That in the year 1779 he volunteered under a Capt'n Handley (If he correctly recollects the name) as a guide to lead him to Stoney Point that after the retaking Stoney Point he was informed by his Capt'n that his services were no longer required he was discharged. The above service was 18 days. Which was omitted but be inserted in his declaration made in open court by the drawer thereof.

Also that he perfectly recollects of serving two months under Capt'n Jacob Onderdonk and Col. Anhawkes Hays Regt in the summer of 1779. After the abandonment of Stoney Point by Genl. Wayne (12), doing guard duty along the shore of Hudson river in Haverstraw Clarkstown and Orange in now Rockland County which service he will prove by two respectable surviving witnesses.

That early in the spring of 1782 he enlisted at Clarkstown for nine months in a company commanded by Capt'n Prentice Bowen in a regiment commanded by Col. Wisenfelt, and served that time as a guard at different places, Viz, Tappan Town, Liberty Pole — Scrawlen borough, and along the shores of Hudson river between Haverstraw and Nyack & Snedens? Ferry having served the term of enlistment he was discharged.

From the great length of time which has elapsed and also from a long bodily infirmity since he before recited services were rendered, many particulars must have escaped the memory of this deponent he has related all he can remember as connected with his services and which are calculated to explain them. In the order of time, he may in some instances have fallen into mistakes. He asks a reasonable allowance for frailty of human memory, which he has faithfully endeavored conscientiously to adhere in the truth in all the events and acquiesces of which he has spoken and he verily believes that he faithfully served his country in the war of the revolution the full periods as above stated. Being in actual service in the field for each term alleged and was not employed in any civil pursuit—and for which services he claims a pension under the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.
