State of New York

Courtland County Court

On this thirteenth day of January in the year Eighteen hundred and Nineteen, before me the Subscriber, one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in and for the said County of Courtland, in the said State of New York, personally appears John Gee, aged fifty six years, resident in the town of Virgil in the said County of Cortland, who being by me first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the provision made by the late act of Congress entitled "an act to provide for Certain persons, engaged in the land and naval service of the United States in the revolutionary war".

That he the said John Gee enlisted in Goshen Orange Co., in the state of New York in the Company commanded by Captain Wood sometime in the year 1776, that he served in said Company about three months, when he enlisted during the war under Captain Nathaniel Norton in Wisenfells' Regiment -

That he continued to serve in said Corps or in the service of the United States between four & five years, during which time he marched under Capt. Norton to Fort Plain, where joined the Regiment under Colonel Wisenfelt—from thence to Cooperstown, and Tioga Point, at which place he joined Sullivan's army, thence to Genesee, Morristown N.J., where the army returned and Rome or Fort Stanwix where he again took up winter Quarters—from thence to Albany, Yorktown, Virg. & Pimpton in New Jersey where he again wintered—and in various other places and at NewBurgh where he again wintered, and there stationed until some time in June in the year 1783, at what place he was honorably discharged from service at NewBurgh aforesaid in the State of New York under Capt. Fowler, in VanCourtland & Regt that he was at the Siege of Yorktown and at the Indian Battle at Newtown—

That he is in reduced circumstances, and stands in need of the assistance of his country for support & that he has no other evidence [norr?] in his power of his services, other than his discharge which was delivered at the land office then in the City of New York in the year 1789. (Signed) John Gee

Sworn to and declares before me, the day and year aforesaid. Edward C. Reed.
