And to the interrogatories propounded to him by the court agreeably to the instructions of the War Department he on his oath maketh answer and saith that he was born in the year one thousand seven hundred and forty six at Fairfield in the State of Connecticut, that the time of his birth was recorded in his bible but that it is now destroyed.

That he has now a written memorandum of his age at his residence in Bedford in said County. That at the times he entered the service as aforesaid he resided in the said town of Bedford and has resided there since the Revolutionary war and now resides there. That he entered the service as a volunteer.

That at the time he was in the service in the year 1775 at the north, the following regular officers were with the troops viz. General Montgomery, and General Schuyler, that the officers who were with the troops at the time of his service in 1776 whose names he now recollects were General Washington & General MacDougal that he knew many others at that time but he has now forgotten their names. That the remainder of his services were on the lines in said County of West Chester and he does not now recollect the names of any of the regular officers who were occasionally at the places where he served.

That he received a written discharge from the service at the expiration of his term of service in Captain Daniel Mills company and Colonel James Holmes, Regiment which was signed by some person whose name he does not now recollect; and that the said discharge is lost or destroyed; that he also received a written discharge from the service at the expiration of his term in Captain Hezekiah Gray's company in the Regiment commanded by Colonel Samuel Drake that it was signed by Eli Tyler an officer of the said company; that said discharge is lost or destroyed; that he has not seen either of said discharges in a great many years; that he was verbally discharged at the expiration of his other terms of service.

That he has no documentary evidence of his service; that the names of the persons to whom he is known in his present neighborhood and who can testify as to his character for veracity and their belief of his services as a soldier in the Revolution are Abijah Harris and Abraham Barrett of the town of Bedford in said County of WestChester.
