He was discharged by Col. Yates at Fort Edward, he assisted in bringing the dead at Lake George. In this service he was also Orderly Sergeant, than that men killed at Lake George belonged to Col. Wagners Regiment.

In 1782 fore part of June he was again in Garrison under Captain Woodard—at Fort Edward, Major Chipman still had charge of the Garrison, he was out four weeks on this service and was discharged—he was a volunteer on this service.

Same year late in the fall he was out three weeks and 4 days under General Stark at Saratoga—in a company commanded Lieut James Storm in Col. VanVecten's Regiment—discharged by Lieut Storms at Saratoga—he was orderly sergeant in this expedition.

Inb 1782. He was out again for fifteen days about the 1st May and went to Saratoga under Major Dickinson in Capt VanWoorts company—and was discharged by Capt. VanWoort – at Saratoga—was orderly sergeant and did garrison duty.

The same spring he went again to the lines at Saratoga, was out fourteen days—under Capt. Peter VanWoort, and was by him discharged, by reason of old age and the consequent loss of memory he is unable to remember the month in which this service was performed.

In the same year he was again at the Saratoga lines in the latter part of Summer as he thinks, in the month of August, for four weeks under Captain VanWoort and by him discharged at Saratoga.

His whole service was performed as an orderly Sergeant, and a volunteer—and he was during the whole time a member [of] Captain VanWoorts Company—and in Col. VanVectens Regiment—although he performed services upon the tours already specified under the officers already mentioned, during the whole period of his services he resided in the Town of Easton in the County of Washington aforesaid and has resided there ever since.

In answer to the questions put to me by the said Judge he says.

1st That he was born at Peekskill County of Westchester [sic] and State of New York on the 11th of July 1756.

2nd that he has no record of his age.

3rd He was living at Easton aforesaid when called into the service and has lived there ever since.

4th He entered the service as a volunteer.

5th He recollects General Schuyler, General Arnold, General Gates, General Nixon, Col. Warner, Col. Cortland—Col VanScaick, Col Gansvort, and the Regiments of Col Gansvort, Col. Courtland, and Col. Van Scaick.

6th He never received a written discharge from the service.

7th The persons to whom he is known in his present neighborhood and who can testify to his character for veracity and their belief of his service are—Samuel Fuller, Abraham Wright—and John Drumhat & others. He further states that there is not in his neighborhood any clergyman who is sufficiently acquainted with his reputation as a soldier of the Revolution to testify to the same—in consequence of the shortness of the time they have resided in his neighborhood, he is therefore under the necessity of establishing his reputation as a soldier by those who are acquainted with his reputation in this particular.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state. (Signed with his mark) Hendrick Lent
