Letter in folder dated May 3, 1927, written in response to an inquiry.

I have to advise you from the papers in the revolutionary War pension claim S.21872, it appears that Thomas Lyon was born May 31, 1766 at Bedford, Westchester County, New York.

He enlisted at said Bedford in April 1782 and served until January 1783 in Captain Hunt's Company of Rangers, in the New York Troops, he was in several skirmishes with Tories. At the time of his enlistment, he was living at Ridgebury, Connecticut, with his father (his name not given), who was driven from his farm at North Castle, Westchester County, New York, by the Tories.

He was allowed pension on his application executed August 29, 1832, while a resident of Chatham, Columbia County, New York.

In 1840 he moved to Wisconsin Territory, to live with two sons, their names not stated. There are no data on file as to his wife, and no further data on file as to children.
