

Pension Application for Alexander McGregor

S.21370

State of New York

Monroe County SS.

On this fourth day of October 1832 personally appeared in open Court before James Smith, Samuel Castle & Joseph Sibley Esquires Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in & for the County of Monroe & State of New York being a Court of Common Law jurisdiction & having a clerk and seal Alexander McGregor of the town of Gates in said county aged seventy eight years who first being sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he was born in the Parish of Kincardine in the County of Inverness Scotland.

That he left Scotland on or about the 11th of May 1774 in a vessel which sailed from the part of Greenack and arrived in the city of New York sometime in the month of July following. He continued at New York for some time and afterwards went up the country to the neighbourhood of Schenectady, for the purpose of working with a countryman of his who was a farmer there--& with whom he engaged as a farm servant.

That he was residing at a place called Starlin within four miles of Schenectady in the County of Schenectady & State of New York at the time of his first enlistment which to the best of the applicants recollection was in the beginning or middle of the month of May in the year 1777, when he enlisted for a period of six months in what this applicant understood to be a regiment of the militia of the State of New York.

That the Regiment was commanded by Colonel Vandyck—whose Christian name he thinks was Henry. The Lieutenant Colonels name was Douyck or Ten Eyck. To the best of his recollection the Regiment had no Major. The Adjutant's name was Tass. The officers or applicants company were Captain Henry Maseilles (or a name of that sound) Lieutenant VanAntwarp—Orderly Sergeant John McKee. There were two other Serjeants in the Company one by the name of Robert Maston and another of the name of Gates.

After applicant inlisted he went immediately to Albany to join the company where they collected together & commenced their march. He thinks they commenced their march in the beginning of June. From Albany they marched on foot to Fort George on Lake George—applicants company marched alone—when they arrived there were a good many troops in the fort & when they were all collected applicant thinks there might have been about 700 of them.

That during all the time they remained at Fort George they were not called out but once, when they were suddenly marched down as far as Troy, where they staid over night and the next day were again marched back to Fort George. They were employed all the time in garrison duty mounting guard &c.

During the time applicants company remained in the fort there was a great sickness and mortality amongst the troops—and applicant himself very sick while in the fort for nearly two months. That applicants company lay in Fort George till sometime in the month of November following when they were marched down to Albany & there discharged by their Captain their term of service having expired.

They received no written discharge. The applicant after his service when back to reside at Starlin aforesaid, but in the spring of the following year he went to Albany and worked as a servant in the family of a Mr. Williamson in Albany—While there he became acquainted with Morgan Lewis Esquire, then Quarter Master General of the United States Forces and afterwards Governor of the said State of New York, who used to board at the House of the said Mr. Williamson.

That in the month of May in the same year which he thinks was the year 1778, Governor Lewis proposed to the applicant that he the applicant should become his servant & attend on him while in performance of his military duties, and that he Governor Lewis should during the time of applicants service place him upon the list of Bateau men in the service of the United States on the Hudson River, and that applicant for his service to the Quarter Master General should draw the pay of a bateaumen;

That applicant acceded to this proposal, and to the best of his recollection it was In the month of May 1778 that he was placed on the List of Bateau=men [sic] in a Company on the Hudson River consisting of from twenty to twenty five men commanded by a Captain Fisher & while he continued in the service of the Quarter Master General he drew his pay and allowances as a Bateaman, & which were paid to him by the said Captain Fisher.

That he continued with the said Quarter Master General in this manner to the best of his recollection for the period of three years and some months – during 1778, 1789, 1780 & 1781—That his duties while thus in the service of the Quarter Master General consisted in a constant attendance on him wherever he went, taking charge of his horses accoutrements &c.

That Governor Lewis headquarters were at Albany but he was constantly travelling about in attendance on the army. The applicant went with him once to Boston, travelled with him through New Jersey & Maryland and was present with him at the surrender of Burgoyne at Saratoga, and when the army were stationed at Saratoga the applicant used to ride with him from the army to Albany two or three times a week.

That he received no pay or compensation from the Quarter Master General farther than the pay which he received as a Bateau man in the United States service & that during the whole period that he remained with him as aforesaid.

That the applicant has no documentary evidence of his said services and he knows of no person whose testimony he can procure & who can testify to his said services except it be the said Governor Lewis, but whether he is now alive the applicant is uncertain – and if alive he does not know where he resides as how he could procure his testimony.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state and the court hereupon propounded & put to send applicant the respective interrogatories prescribed by the war Department under the act of the 7 June 1837 who upon oath doth make answer thereunto as following.
