Letter in folder dated July 15, 1938, written in response to an inquiry.

Reference is made to your letter in which you request information in regard to Ensign Mitchel who served in the Revolutionary War in Captain Mills' company, Colonel VanSchaick's New York regiment, died in Ohio.

The data furnished herein were obtained from papers on file in pension claim, R.7271, based on the service of Ensign Mitchell (Mitchell) in the Revolutionary War.

Ensign Mitchel was born 1759 at Old Deerfield on the Connecticut River. The names of his parents were not stated.

During the Revolutionary War Ensign Mitchel resided about three miles from Skeensborough Landing, New York. After the Revolution he moved to Essex, Vermont, where he lived five or seven years, lthen to the State of Pennsylvania, there six or seven years, thence to Ohio ;and lived in various places, eight or ten years in Champaign County.

Ensign Mitchel applied for pension September 29, 1832, at which time he was a resident of Pike Township, Madison County, Ohio, and alleged that he enlisted sometime in October, 1775, and served about nine months in Captain Mills' company in Colonel VanSchaick's New York Regiment.

The claim for pension was not allowed as proof of six months' service, as required by the pension law, was not furnished.

Claudius Mitchall and Newman Mitchell stated in 1859 in Madison County, Ohio, that they were hears [heirs] at law of the soldier, Ensign Mitchel or Mitchall. The degree of relationship to the soldier or to each other was not stated, nor was the date of death of the soldier shown.

[blot, papers on file in this claim [blot] no further discernible data in regard to family.
