Letter dated September 8, 1938.

Reference is made to your letter in which you request information in regard to Peter Ferris of Connecticut and New York, and Zachariah Sickels of New York, both soldiers of the Revolutionary War.

Because of the great demand for Revolutionary War data and the limited trained clerical force available for furnishing such information, it is not possible to comply in full with each request which requires so much time and research.

The record of Zacharias Sickles which follows was obtained from papers on file in pension claim, S.28880, based upon his service in the War of the Revolution. This is the record of the only Zacharias

Sickels found on file in the Revolutionary War records of this office; the names were searched under similar spellings.

Zacharias Sickels ( as his signature is shown in the claim) was born December 15, 1749, place not stated, nor were the names of his parents given.

Zacharias Sickels was a member of an "Association Company who were friends to American Liberty", and was enrolled in 1775 as a private in the "Albany Militia"; he served at various times with the New York troops, until the close of the war, under Captains Isaac DeForest, Garret Groesbeck, William Hunn, Abraham Schuyler, and Jacob Lansing. During his service he assisted in preparing a thousand pairs of moccasins for the army under General Montgomery; length of entire service two years.

The soldier, Zacharias Sickels, was allowed pension on his application executed July 19, 1832, at which time he was living in Albany, New York.

He later lived in Chittenango, Madison County, New York. He died June 14, 1839, leaving no widow, but children survived him, their names not given.
