End Notes—R.9590—Simkins or Simpkins

1. Captain Henry Vandeburgh of Lieutenant Colonel Commandant Marinus Willett's Fifth New York Continental Regiment in 1780. There is no record of Isaac in this company or regiment. There is a listing for a Jeremiah Simkins who enlisted as a private in Captain Henry Godwin's Company for three years in Colonel Lewis DuBois Fifth New York Continental Regiment. When the Fifth New York was consolidated with Colonel Phillip VanCortlandt's Second New York Continental Regiment on January 1, 1781, Captain Vandeburgh was transferred to the Second New York. Jeremiah, who had enlisted for the war was transferred to Captain Vandeburgh's Company; he deserted on February 1, 1782. Previously Jeremiah had been listed as sick in Albany Hospital since April of 1781. According to page 197 of Documents Relating to the Colonial History of the State of New York, ed. Bertold Fernow, Vol. XV, State Archives, Vol. I, Albany, N.Y., Weed, Parsons and Company Printers, 1887: The following information is found for Isaac Simkins for the Second New York: "Simkins, Isaac, private, enlisted for war, discharged on ac[ount] of disability A.P. [Assembly Papers] 22-26." Unfortunately these records were burned in the capitol fire of March 29, 1911. There is NO listing for Jeremiah or Isaac in Captain Vandeburgh's Company in Colonel VanCortlandt's Second New York Regiment in Revolutionary War Rolls 1775-1783, Series M-246, Roll 69, folder 34, National Archives, Washington, D.C.
2. Because of Isaac's age of 14 years he would have had to have served as a drummer in 1781 but Captain Vandeburgh's Company had David Philips as a drummer who served with the company for the remaining period of the war.
3. The Battle of Stone Arabia was fought on October 19, 1780. There were no Continental Troops at this battle. Isaac would have been 13 at this time. Isaac's name for any service as a drummer in the New York State Levies for 1780 has not been found.
4. The Fifth New York Regiment wintered in Schoharie in 1778-1779 and then went on the Sullivan-Clinton Campaign in the summer of 1779. When the campaign ended they returned to West Point, NY and to New Jersey.
5. Commander-in-Chief General George Washington, General Alexander McDougal and Captain Samuel Sacket of the Fourth New York Continental Regiment. Captain Sacket died on April 15, 1780.

Isaac's pension application was rejected based on no proof of service and Drummer David Philips who served as the drummer in Captain Vandeburgh's Company from January 1781 to June of 1783. Isaac claims 2 years and six months service but no Simkins except for Jeremiah appears on the muster and pay rolls until he deserts. Isaac may have been a son or younger brother. Neither Isaac nor Jeremiah appear in the Balloting Book for Military Bounty Land; this is because Jeremiah was listed as a deserter making him ineligible for the bounty land.
