Reply to letter requesting information, dated September 22, 1930.

You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S.40562, that John Thompson enlisted in July, 1775, and served five months as a private in Captain Daniel Denton's New York company, and was at the siege and capture of Saint Johns. Immediately after the above service, he enlisted and served in Captains Thomas DeWitt's and Forsyth's companies, Colonel Peter Gansevoort's New York Regiment, until the spring of 1780, when he was transferred to Captain Cornelius Johnston's company, Colonel Van Schaick's New York Regiment; was at the siege of Yorktown and served until the spring of 1783.

He was allowed pension on his application executed May 12, 1818, at which time he was living in Butler County, Ohio, and was aged sixty-seven years.

He died March 2, 1836.

It is not stated whether soldier was ever married.

End Notes—John Thompson—S.40562

1. John Thompson in his 1820 application states conflicts with the 1818 application. In 1818b he is 67 years old plus he states in the 1820 application that he enlisted at Bunker Hill and in 1818, he states that he enlisted about three weeks after Bunker Hill. His memory is faulty in 1820 more so than in 1818. In 1820 he states that he enlisted in Captain brown's Company. Jacobus S. Bruyn was a Captain in the Third New York Continental Regiment. There is a John Thompson in the company who is 28 and from Walkkill. In his 1818 application he states he enlisted in Captain Daniel Denton's Company. There is a John Thompson aged 26 born in old England and a Jonathan Thompson aged 25 born in New Jersey. In both applications he is wrong as the Colonel of the Third New York. In June 30, 1775, James Clinton was Colonel of the Third New York. On March 28, 1776 it was Ruldophus Ritzema who was Colonel. On November 21, 1776, the New York Continental Regiments were re-organized more commonly called the third establishment, Peter Gansevoort was appoint Colonel of the Third New York.
2. According to the July 22, 1775 muster roll of Captain Denton's Company, the following information was extracted: John Thompson enlisted July 5, 1775 (this date corresponds the closest to his date of enlistment), age 26, born in old England and his occupation is a labourer. He is described as 5 feet 10 1/2 inches, brown hair and blue eyes. FROM: Revolutionary War Rolls. 1775-1783, Series M-246, Roll 69, Folder 38, National Archives, Washington, D.C.
3. Major General Philip Schuyler of Albany, N.Y.
4. The Siege of St. Johns, Canada from September to November 3, 1775.
5. John is again mistaken. He enlisted as a private on June 8, 1777 in Captain Thomas DeWitt's Company in the Third New York. There is no Captain Forsyth in the Third New York.
6. On January 1, 1781, the 5 New York Continental Regiments were consolidated. John was transferred into the First New York Continental Regiment. John appears in May of 1782 in Captain Cornelius T. Jansen's Company. . FROM: Revolutionary War Rolls. 1775-1783, Series M-246, Roll 66, Folder 11, National Archives, Washington, D.C.
7. Fort Schuyler (Fort Stanwix) in present day Rome, NY, was besieged in August of 1777 for 21 days. John doesn't mention it but the Third New York also participated in 1779 in the General John Sullivan's and James Clinton's Expedition against the Iroquois in the western part of New York.
8. The Siege of Yorktown, Virginia, was from September 28 to October 19, 1781.
